

Arthur W. Lawson

October 19, 2017

Arthur William Lawson, 82 of Bradenton FL, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on October 19th at Sunset Lake Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Venice FL. He was the husband of Sally L. Lawson, formerly of Naugatuck, CT and presently of Bradenton, FL.

"Bill" was born in Waterbury Connecticut, the son of Helen (Roberts) and Arthur William Lawson of Middlebury, Ct. Bill had resided in Sarasota and Bradenton, since 1988. He held a long career in the fuel oil and propane industry. Upon moving to Florida, Bill purchased a small business providing painting and power washing services in the Sarasota area. After retirement, he worked part time at Scott Paint Company and IMG Academies in the golf department.

Bill loved sharing his vast knowledge of mechanics, woodworking, carpentry, restoring cars with his children and family. He was a loving husband, father, son and friend to everyone. His presence and character were loved by everyone he met. He was an accomplished golfer and enjoyed his time out on the course with friends and loved ones. Besides his wife of 63 years, he leaves his daughter Elizabeth and her husband Paul (Forsyth) of Sarasota, FL, Arthur William III and his wife Marie of North Port, FL, David and his wife Sharon of Sarasota, FL, Eric of Bradenton, FL, along with 9 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren, and his sister Ann Sullivan of Marlton, NJ. He will be missed dearly.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Thursday, November 2nd from 5-7pm at Toale Brothers funeral home and Chapel at 40 N. Orange Ave in Sarasota.

“ To Bill's family. We knew Bill at Gold Tree and really enjoyed talking to him. Super nice man and interesting. One of our last memories is when my husband helped him to swim in the pool. Bill had said it was something he missed being able to do and Bruce got him in and out.
So sorry for your loss
