

Charles (Charlie) H. Cullen

April 17, 2017

Charles (Charlie) H Cullen, of Venice, Florida, passed away Monday, April 17, 2017 at the age of 91.

Charlie served in WWII as a ship's radio officer and then graduated from Southern Technical Institute with a degree in electrical engineering. He was a ham radio operator and an avid computer technician.

During the 30 years Charlie resided in the community, he was very active; delivering Meals on Wheels, helping serve meals at St Mark's Episcopal church, and volunteering at the Center of Hope were just a few of his many hours of service.

Charlie is survived by his wife Margaret; three sons, Charles Cullen of Austin, TX, David Cullen of Alpharetta, GA, Blake Cullen of Lawrenceville, GA, daughter Julie Colwell of Athens, AL; three grandchildren, Elizabeth (Dusty) McCain and Sarah and Jeff Cullen and great granddaughter Audrey McCain.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his sister.

A memorial service will be held Monday, 4/24/17, 11:00AM at St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Memorials may be made to St Mark's Episcopal Church in Venice, FL.

Comments

---

“ I am quite saddened to hear about Charlie. My mom, Mima Lindquist, always spoke very highly of him. He was a very sweet man. May he rest eternally. Fondly and with prayers, Gail Lindquist

Gail Lindquist - November 18, 2017 at 12:00 AM

---

“ Charlie was my friend. I'll miss him dearly. Lionel from New York

Lionel Boteju - April 29, 2017 at 12:00 AM

---

“ To Margaret and family
Please accept our sincere sympathy on the passing of Charlie. He will be fondly remembered and missed as the Clerk of our adjoining election precinct for the county, and for faithfully delivering meals on wheels for many years.
Thinking of you.
Alice and Charlie Dudley

Alice and Charlie Dudley - April 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM