

James "Jim" Ninivaggi

April 6, 2019

James "Jim" Ninivaggi, 56, of Sarasota, FL passed away unexpectedly following complications from surgery on April 6, 2019 at Sarasota Memorial Hospital.

Jim was born in Hackensack, NJ and graduated from University of Connecticut. He was simply the world's greatest man, the best husband, father, brother, son, friend, and colleague.

Jim will forever be remembered as funny, loving, giving, and nurturing. He was generous, devoted, and protective of all he loved. His biggest life goal and now his legacy was to be the best father he could be to his two beloved children, Elizabeth Ninivaggi and Nicholas Ninivaggi.

His signature laugh and pocket square were his hallmarks. Wherever he went, he made each person feel as if they were the only and most important person in the room with his caring nature. Jim enjoyed drawing funny cards, hiking, biking, being with family, and making people laugh.

Throughout Jim's passionate career he was an account executive, sales VP, consultant, and analyst.

Jim loved his colleagues and his work. He had amassed unrivaled knowledge about what it means to be successful. He was passionate about sharing his wisdom and ideas with others. Jim was inherently positive, unfailingly supportive, and always quick with a joke.

Jim is predeceased by his sister, Andrea McGranahan.

He is survived by his adored and beloved wife, Barbara Sucoff Ninivaggi, daughter Elizabeth, son Nicholas, mother Joan Fitzpatrick Ninivaggi, and father Vito Ninivaggi. He is also survived by his three sisters: Mary Cox, Susan and Joseph Daly, Caroline and Shawn Schestag; and countless adoring nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends whom he made family.

I knew Jim and Andrea from Ridgefield. He went to school with my sister and I went to school with Andrea.

Also worked with him at Learning International. All of us who worked with him in Stamford from Sales, Marketing, and IT send our deepest sympathy. He was such a great guy! So very sorry.

“ When Jim's sister, Andrea, passed, Jim sent me a wonderful picture of the two of us from our teen years. We were wearing the same dress to our grandparents 50th anniversary party. I have that picture framed in my office and look at it every day. He was such a thoughtful person. Godspeed Jim!
