“ Dear Rita and Michael:
I have been thinking of reaching out to your mother during this time, as it had been awhile since we spoke. Today, I learned from my mom that she read an obituary in the paper and forgot to tell me. I was stunned, because I did not realize that your mother was in a Skilled Nursing Facility. Also, many of the facilities do not allow visitors during the pandemic. I am so very sorry for your loss, especially at this time of year. I have very fond memories of your mother extending to the time of my childhood and more recently our phone calls as an adult. She was truly a spiritual woman and a fine christian. I am honored to have known her during my lifetime.

Our condolences over your loss,
Robin Callahan and Joyce Kuhl
