

Marie Ann Meoli Truppa

October 19, 1927 - January 6, 2021

Marie Ann Meoli Truppa passed away from natural causes on January 6, 2021.

Marie was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on October 19, 1927. She was raised in the Bronx, New York and was a long time resident of both Yonkers, NY and Sarasota, FL.

Marie was a loving devoted mother, wife and daughter.

As a young woman, Marie studied Fashion Design under Fabiani, a prominent designer in Rome, Italy. She returned to New York and became an accomplished, sought out fashion designer in New York City. She owned her own custom dress shop named Meoli in Harrison, New York, while raising her family. Additionally, she became a real estate entrepreneur and continued to work her business until 89 years of age.

She is survived by her two daughters, Andrea Brunath and Maria Beck, who adore her dearly. She is also survived by her youngest sister, Christine Medico, four grandchildren, Jalina, Jessica, Eric and Danielle and great-granddaughter, Chloe. She is preceded in death by her loving husband, Peter Truppa, her parents Lilian and Peter Meoli and her three sisters, Rosalie, Emily and Lilian.

Marie was a selfless, generous, kind woman who always placed others before herself. Her loving personality radiated from within and enriched the lives of family and friends alike. She inspired everyone she met through her worldly wisdom, a magnetic personality, beautiful smile and never ending wit. She shall remain remembered as the true matriarch of the family; a leader for all to exemplify, for she was an independent woman who followed the path of her dreams with perseverance and tenacity from the time she was a child. She was a woman of many diverse talents as an artist, designer, pianist and businesswoman. Most importantly, Marie has instilled an impression in our hearts that will remain forever.

A Funeral Mass will be held at St. Michael The Archangel Catholic Church on Friday January 15, 2021 at 11:00am.

Donations in lieu of flowers can be made in the name of Marie Meoli Truppa to either American Diabetes Association or St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

“ May you sleep in peace. You came into my life as an Angel. I was your tenant and dear friend from Belmont Avenue. I will never forget how you used to like watching your stories at home while we had lunch together. You had such a big heart. I loved you so much. You opened your heart and your home to me and my daughter In my time of hardship. May god bless you always and keep you in his glory.

“ Rest in peace you beautiful woman, I hope Nicole was there to greet you into heaven. I will always cherish the visits to the beach when we were kids. So fortunate to have been able to see Mary at dad's 70th birthday. I will cherish those memories forever. Wrapping you, Andrea & Maria, in comfort and love as you mourn the loss of your mom. All our love to your entire family.

“ God bless Aunt Marie and May she rest eternally in peace. I will always remember her voice and smile as she called me “Johnnie”, a name reserved for me growing up by only close family. She was a loving husband to my mom’s brother, Uncle Pete and a wonderful mother to my beautiful nieces, Andrea & Maria who I keep in my thoughts and prayers along with their families during this time. I will always cherish the memory of Aunt Marie

“ Each day as I do my morning meditation and evening prayer, I send a special intention out for Marie, a beautiful person who positively impacted and will continue to impact my life. Each day I light a candle here and at home, remembering a day with my dear friend Maria, when we lit candles at Saint Patrick's Cathedral in New York City. May you all feel peace and love.

“ Aunt Marie is the wife of my mother's brother...Uncle Peter. As a child, my earliest memory was attending a summer party, at what seemed to a kid raised in an apartment in the Bronx, as the Meoli "family compound" in Yonkers, where Aunt Marie and Uncle Pete lived for a short time in early marriage. The vague memory is one of noise, laughter, love (All the Meoli family - parents, sisters and some extended family were there)...and for some reason, I remember a patio surrounded in large bulb patio lights - I was probably only 2 or 3 at the time. Later on, it was several visits per year to the house on Hayward St as all the cousins were growing up. In all of those visits, Aunt Marie and Uncle Pete were always welcoming, loving and fun - the parties always marked by an abundance and variety of food. In testament to Aunt Marie's loving nature, during the last years of Grandma Truppa's life, she took grandma into her home, and cared for her to the end, as if she were her own. RIP, Aunt Marie - you will live on in our memory.

Deepest sympathy to cousins Andrea and Maria for your loss.

“ I always enjoyed the times when I'd stop by Andrea's house after the girls dance class and she'd be there visiting. She'd be playing the piano or we'd just talk for a few minutes. Always smiling and cheerful. She will be missed. My condolences to you all Gail, Bob, Anthony & Jenna Pluchino

“ The Cascio side was her mother's sister antie Filippa. The families were always close. Maria and Andrea visited second cousin Ann and John in Hartsdale. Our families were always close. We shared meals together, Sundays families and so on. Even though Andrea and Maria were second cousins, in reality they were first cousins. They always will be. Maria attended Maria Regina high, aunt Mary I called her, would stop by to see her first cousin Ann around the corner. Cousin Peter was a true gentleman. (Like uncle Peter to me and John Jr.) Extremely good memories. I would take trips to see my cousin from Boynton Beach to Sarasota. In new York, I would sometimes come up to spend time with my cousin (I told her she was like my aunt) for some reason I always found my self going to the Bronx. Always and will be a Yankee fan. Cousin Mary was so much fun to be with and enriched my life so much. La familia!!!! Prayers are being said now at my church for her. God bless the Truppa family. My cousins.
