Through outreach, they got sponsorship from Google and worked with representatives of the 101st Airborne. Their vision was to leverage knowledge to bring happiness and joy into the world.

Albert worked most recently at Sixty East restaurant in Ellenton, FL, and was known for his incredible work ethic. Albert was an accomplished marksman,

“ I had only just met Albert through my cousin Zack. Right away I felt at ease talking and joking with him. I instantly saw what drew Zack to Albert and vice versa. Hearing of the trip they were to embark upon made me excited for their journey together. I only wish that they were both still here with us. He had a beautiful soul and will be remembered. I hope his family finds peace along with ours.
