Albert was like a big kid and loved by all! He truly loved life and most days you could find him on the tennis court or on one of his 18 boats he owned throughout his life. Albert was an avid sportsman and shared his love of the water, boats, and sports with his girls and wife.

Albert was very well known and well thought of throughout the Tampa Bay and the Sarasota areas. Albert and Annette also have a home in Lineville, NC at The Grandfather Golf & Country Club where they spend the summer months.

Most importantly, Albert was a loving Husband and wonderful Father that will be greatly missed. He leaves behind his wife Annette K. Ayers, daughter
