Franzheim, Albert Whitaker (“Whit”) 93, of Sarasota, Florida died on Friday May 14, 2021. Originally from Wheeling West Va, he was born November 23, 1927, the son of the late Lawrence Woodward Franzheim and Sarah Whitaker Franzheim.

He became an avid gardener, prolific painter and enjoyed traveling especially in his Wanderlodge motor home.

Whit and Jodie began their Florida adventure as snowbirds to Osprey in 1990. After Jodie's death in 2002 he moved into The Glenridge at Palmer Ranch where he lived an active life for many years serving on many committees and clubs. He was particularly proud of his involvement with their renowned Performing Arts Center (GPAC).

Whit met and married his current wife, Brook BecVar, of Louisville, KY to whom he had been a devoted husband for the past 12 years.

Whit was well-loved by his many friends and his family and will be fondly remembered for his witty sense of humor, his wonderful sense of adventure, and his kind heart. He leaves a legacy of dignity and true gentlemanship behind.
