

Aldo Giovanucci

October 7, 1928 - August 24, 2023

Aldo Giovanucci, who was born on Staten Island, NY on October 7, 1928 left this life on August 24, 2023.

He is predeceased by his parents, Ferdinando and Lina Giovanucci and brother Ronald.

He is survived by his wife of 69 years, Rita Bruno Giovanucci, his daughter, Linda Bonnette, his son, Thomas Giovanucci and wife, Dana and grandsons, John, Thomas Richard, Christopher and William and wife, Adriana. Aldo has one 2 year old great grand-daughter, Gabriela, and a step grand- daughter, Rose Signorile and a cousin, Joan Gallagher. Aldo has several nieces and nephews that reside in Staten Island and New Jersey.

Aldo served during the Korean Conflict after which he worked for Western Electric as an installer on Staten Island. He then joined the New York City Fire Department for which he served until retirement. He established a real estate business on Staten Island which he operated until 2017. During that time, he received various construction awards.

In 1985 Aldo and wife Rita moved to Rumson, NJ. While he enjoyed growing and maintaining his Staten Island real estate business, his family was most important to him. He looked forward to spending time with his grandsons, taking them jet skiing, to Yankee games and car shows. He also loved boating and was active in the Shrewsbury Yacht Club, Navesink Country Club and Jumping Brook Golf Club.

Aldo in his quiet and humble way helped many people in need. Besides his family, Aldo will be missed by those friends and caregivers whose faithful visits and attention were a great source of joy and comfort to him.

“ Aldo was a true gentleman. In the 50 yrs. I've known him I never heard him utter a cross word. We first met while in the N.Y.C. Fire Dept., that is when I started to work for him in his real estate business. I witnessed Aldo forgiving personal loans and rents.

I will miss our weekly visits these past few years, playing Checkers, Tic Tac Toe or just looking at car books together.

I feel privileged to have called you my friend and mentor. You are now reunited with your brother Ron, John Bruno and Richie Nolan.

*Arrivederci,
Ed*
