

Dr. Alexander William Kubik

May 11, 1931 - March 20, 2019

Dr. Alexander William Kubik, 87, of Sarasota, FL died peacefully on March 20, 2019 after a long illness. He was right where he always wanted to be by his beloved wife Helen's side, holding her hand. Alex was born on May 11, 1931 in Winnipeg, Canada to Stephen and Melania Kubik. When Alex was a youngster, his mother died and he moved with his father and brother, Steve, to Pennsylvania. Alex was an accomplished wrestler and football player at York High School and at Bloomsburg University. He earned his Master's and Ph.D. at the University of Maryland. Alex began his life of service to others in Maryland where he was a teacher, vice principal, and principal in Baltimore County. He was a talented speech and hearing pathologist for Johns Hopkins University and Catholic Diocese clinics, taught at Loyola College in Maryland, and was a speech and hearing pathologist for the R. Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center at the University of Maryland Medical System. Alex was recruited to work at this Center, the first facility in the world to treat shock, by Dr. Cowley, who is widely considered the father of shock trauma medicine. Other than his love for Helen and family, Alex was passionate about his enduring faith, singing, traveling the world, dancing, and painting. He was known for his joyful demeanor, beaming smile, and curious nature. Alex will always be honored and cherished by his four children, four grandchildren and all their spouses, and by his new great grandchild who carries his name. “ Hello Helen. My whole family was deeply saddened to see the news of Alex's passing. I have memories of Alex and yourself going back to when you and my mom were at Pine Grove. Alex and yourself were the best friends they had in the last several years of their lives. Mindy, Molly and Deirdre along with myself still appreciate the loving kindness Alex and yourself showed us on our trips to Sanibel including letting us stay in your house on one occasion. I know this is a very hard thing for you to deal with and we are all sending prayers for strength and healing your way. Please tell Jodi and Kimmy that I am thinking about them and hope they are well and that I offer my sincere condolences. I wish you all the best in this sad time and if there is ever anything anybody in my family can do for you up here, please do not hesitate to reach out. With love love. Mike.
