“ Growing up as kids in our family home at 97 McNaughton Street, Galt Ontario, I remember Fred, he was always kind, caring, quiet, respectful and loving. Fred was a great brother to me, how he loved it when our mother made a leg of lamb for dinner (his favorite). I also remember the summer he got poison ivy, Fred had to put on bottles of Calamine lotion! I remember on my first day of kindergarten at Central School, Fred walked me home at lunch time. On October 20 1944, I ran to meet Fred, Otto and Grace to let them know we had a new baby. Fred laid down in the middle of the road with excitement (not much traffic in 1944). We all ran home to see our new baby brother Richard. Fred, I miss you very much, always in my heart...your sister, Liz. Sending my deepest sympathy to Diana, Karen, Tommy and families.

I did not know your comment existed and found it today. It brought a wonderful smile to my face. To think of my father as a child and your brother warmed my heart. Thank you so much for sharing this wonderful story. I only wish I had seen this sooner, but finding this today was a wonderful surprise. Lovingly, Karen Dienesch-Calamari (Fred's Daughter)
