

Alfred Martin Eunice (Alfonso)

December 11, 1938 - January 15, 2025

Alfred Martin Eunice (Alfonso) December 11, 1938 – January 15, 2025. Born in Saint Petersburg, Florida To Charles and Marion Eunice. He was a resident of Sarasota and completed his journey at Tidewell hospice. He was the oldest to his late brother, David Zelton Eunice, and is survived by his son, Kenneth Eunice and granddaughter Samantha Stubbs, née Eunice.

He started his adult career at Paris Island with the US Marines in 1957, and completed his tour at the Naval air base in South Florida. He later moved to Atlanta, Georgia where he used his talent as an artist to develop his career as a cosmetologist. He then moved to West Palm Beach, Florida, where he built three successful beauty shops. He eventually retired to the West Coast of Florida, where he met the love of his life, Marj Kirchner, who introduced him to the Lutheran Church. That is where he found the love of Jesus Christ.

A celebration of life will be held at Saint Armand's Key Lutheran Church on Saint Armand's Key, Florida on Saturday, January 25, 2025 at 11:00 AM.
