“ Being his son was tough. But now I understand why. There were A LOT of expectations put on me and I only realized that as I got older why he did so. And I am forever grateful. My life growing up in Miami with him and my Mother(Ann Silvestro) was exciting and a great learning experience. As both of my parents were talented people and I will forever miss them both. My new chapter of my life started With my new mother ( Martha Jo Silvestro) and sister (Theresa Silvestro Parsons) and I am eternally grateful to them both for being by my Fathers side all of these years. I know it wasn't easy, especially in the end. Their love and devotion kept our family in check.

Dad you will be truly missed. I and your granddaughter Jordan will miss your joking around and your straight forward advice. I know we have a new angel watching over us.

All of my love.

Wayne , your son and your granddaughter Jordan
