

Alvin A. Saxonbert

June 9, 1925 - May 8, 2017

Alvin Aaron Saxonberg, age 91, of Sarasota, Florida, passed away on May 8th, 2017 in Sarasota. Al was born on June 9th, 1925 to Robert and Estelle Saxonberg in Chicago, Illinois.

He graduated from Hyde Park High School in 1943, going on to serve his country in the waning months of WWII. After returning home he earned a degree in Business from Roosevelt College in Chicago, Illinois where he met his first wife Barbara and started his family.

Al spent the first half of his life as Al Sax, building a highly successful tire and auto repair business in Chicago and Northwest Indiana, catering to the automotive needs of his loyal local clientele and regular Chicago notables like George Shearing, Billy Williams and Muddy Waters.

Al set a positive example for all who knew him in the way he respected others and in his generous charitable spirit.

Al was well known among his friends and relatives for his good humor and story-telling, and it can be said, without a doubt, that he lived life to the fullest.

Al delighted in time spent with his many friends and family; enjoying Sarasota's opera and ballet scene with his wife Beverly, fishing with his children and grandchildren, jamming on his keyboard, playing golf and relishing his Sunday morning billiards with his buddies.

Al was preceded in death by his first wife Adele Barbara Saxonberg, his sisters Marion Markovitz and Adele Furman and his first cousin and lifelong confidant Allen Wolf.

Al is survived by his loving wife of 36 years Beverly Saxonberg, his two children Mark Saxonberg and Cheryl Kargher, his three step children Bonnie Coker, Jay Ackerman and Joy Mintz, his grandchildren Alex Kargher, Lauren Szczurowski, Sara Saxonberg, Jordan Saxonberg, Jack Champion, Megan Ackerman, Jake Ackerman, Tamir Mintz and Brittany Mintz, his great grandchildren Benjamin Szczurowski and Shoshana Kargher and his always loyal canine friend Princess.

“ Sincere condolences to Beverly and family. It was a pleasure and privilege to have known Al as a golfing buddy of my late husband, Irwin. He was a cheerful and generous person, and fun!
