

Andrew "Andy" E. Catuogno

November 19, 1935 - May 26, 2026

Andrew E. Catuogno, lovingly known as "Andy," passed away peacefully on May 26, 2026, in Lakewood Ranch, Florida. Born in Brooklyn, New York, on November 19, 1935, to Anna and Giuseppe Catuogno, who immigrated from Italy, Andy lived a life defined by hard work, dedication, discipline, and a deep love for his family.

Andy served in the United States Army and carried a strong sense of duty and commitment throughout his life. He was also a proud graduate of Pace University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in finance.

Andy spent the first 35 years of his career as a Wall Street executive in New York before retiring to Florida, where he continued his professional life by operating his own business and later serving as a Florida State Tax Auditor. He was exceptionally sharp with numbers and finance, so much so that family and friends often referred to him as a "human calculator."

Andy also had a love for baseball and was a devoted fan of the New York Yankees, always enjoying the game and cheering on his favorite team. Above all else, he will be remembered as a hardworking and devoted family man who always placed his loved ones at the center of everything, he did. He was a role model to his children and grandchildren, leading by example through his work ethic, discipline, and commitment to family.

Andy was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Josephine Catuogno.

He is survived by his loving children, Joseph, Ann Marie, Andrea, and Christopher; his cherished grandchildren, Danielle, Cody, Amanda, Thomas, Sophia, Christine, and Gianna; and his great-grandchild, Clay.

Family and friends are invited to attend a viewing and Mass on June 2, 2026, at Incarnation Catholic Church in Sarasota, Florida beginning at 8:30 a.m. Following the service, a procession and burial will take place at Sarasota National Cemetery at 12:30 p.m.

“ I was 7 years old when Andy started dating my sister many years ago. He was like a big brother to me and my brothers. I'll never forget the times I would visit my sister and Andy (not so long ago) and he would get in trouble with her for one thing or another, he and I would start giggling when she wasn't looking. Then we would both be in trouble! I will miss you Andy! Rest in peace.
