

Angela "Ang" Robin Williamson

April 9, 1979 - January 11, 2026

Angela "Ang" Robin Williamson, 46, passed away in Sarasota, Florida on January 11, 2026, near the ocean, one of her favorite places on earth. Beloved sister, daughter, and friend, Ang was known for her gentle heart with animals and anyone she met.

Ang was born in Chicago Heights, Illinois, on April 9, 1979, to John and Susan Williamson, of Schererville, Indiana. She resided in Sarasota, Florida. Ang graduated from South Florida University with a B.A. in Interdisciplinary Studies, and following her many passions, worked in fields such as yoga, real estate, health care, and hospitality.

Led by love and kindness throughout her entire life, Ang made friends everywhere and with everyone. She never passed up a chance to extend a hand or kind word. As a child, Ang would seek out anyone sitting alone to befriend them. As an adult, she extended dignity and affection to people who were unhoused and anyone in need. Ang would know the names of a server's kids before the dinner orders were in.

Ang was FUN. She could make a party out of a picnic or a walk. She radiated warmth. She made her family and friends feel like they were incredibly special. She loved sunsets and never missed one if she could help it. She looked for rainbows and hearts everywhere. Ang adored animals, especially her fur-nephews. Ang was happiest at the beach, riding her Harley and traveling to far away countries.

In addition to her parents, Ang is survived by her sister, Heather Williamson, and Heather's husband John Gridley, as well as extended family: aunt Julie (Mel) Mourfield, uncle Leonard Cook, and cousins Michael (Kristy) Weist, Mindy (Shaun) Dixon Weist, Jolisa Jones, Ashley (Jeremy) Wolfla (Grace and Mavery), Landen McConnell, Lizzy (Cary) Harbison (Jude and Blakely), Makaylah Pratt (Lukas and Emmett), Dena Wallace (Torrey), and Dean Cook.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents, whom she adored: Charles and JoAnn Weist, John and Frances Williamson, and Bill and MaryLou Storms, as well as her aunts and uncle, JoEllen Cook, Maureen Weist, and Mickey Weist.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you donate to Satchel's Last Resort satchelslastresort.org/donate/in-honor-of no-kill animal shelter/sanctuary in Sarasota, FL.

A memorial service will be held on February 19, 2026, at All Seasons 141 West State Street, Albany, IN, from 1pm - 4pm.

Future celebrations of life will be planned in Sarasota and San Francisco.

“ Ang was such a beautiful person and soul. She legally married my husband and I and if anyone close to her finds her written vows for us we would love to have that piece of her to carry with us. She was authentically and unapologetically one of the most loving people I've ever met. I'm sure wherever she is at now she's continuing to shine her light.. peace to her family and loved ones. I will continue to find hearts in random objects and think of her ❤️

“ I didn't know Angie well in high school as she was a few years younger, but just want to let the family know I am praying for comfort for the hard moments and wisdom for all the decisions needed to be made. So sorry for your loss of your dear daughter and sister.

“ I remember when Aunt Sue your mom. Got all four of us girls the same matching shirts. While you guys were at Meme storms visiting. That's actually one of my greatest pictures of the four of us. My other great memory is when we lived in Arizona and you girls came to visit and we all me and Heather were on the bottom and you girls were up on our you know like shoulders like making like a pyramid almost I love that picture. That was the same year we got cabbage patch kids. I'm going to miss you deeply and there's a deep sadness in my heart right now. Tell me me storms I said hi and papal storms I said hi and I love them and miss them dearly I will miss you. I love you!
