

Angelo Anthony Caso Sr.

April 13, 1935 - April 30, 2024

Angelo was born to Vita Maria and Angelo Mario Caso on April 13, 1935, in Bloomfield, New Jersey. Angelo was an Army Veteran and a proud American. After serving in the military, Angelo became a Technical Advisor to Clairol International. He traveled the world, spent several years in New Zealand and Australia, and opened six schools where he taught techniques in hair coloring. While in New Zealand, he met and married his beautiful wife, Lesley. For the past 50+ years, Angelo and Lesley have owned and operated The Hair Color Clinic in Roseland New Jersey, and The Hair Color Center in Sarasota, Florida.

Angelo is survived by his wife, Lesley, and his children, Karon, John, and Angelo Jr. He is also survived by his sister, Mary "Phyllis" Farsiou. Angelo was predeceased by his sister Lillian Kelbas.

Aside from his dedication to his business and being able to correct any hair coloring problem, he could fix anything. Whether it was a car problem or a home repair, he could fix it or make whatever he needed to fix it! He loved working with his hands and had a keen attention to detail and took pride in his work. When he did take some time to relax, he liked to spend time with his wife, children, and grandchildren.

Visitation will be held Wed., May 8h, from 10-11am with a funeral service at

“ I have been going to Angelo and Lesley for 41 years to have my hair done. We would talk about our Italian parents and he would show me pictures of his dad and how his dad raised him and his sisters by himself after his mom passed. Angelo was a very kind and gentle man and made every women who came to him happy with their color. Rest in peace Angelo. I will miss you. Mary Ann Inglis

“ Angelo was the best, a true legend! He will be missed by many. I always enjoyed talking to him as he colored my hair. We had similar views on politics and tried to make sense of the world we live in. Rest in peace Angelo!! We will all be here for Leslie.

“ My mom always said her brother was an angel. And she was right. Uncle Angelo was always positive and a joy to be around -- and he was so funny and witty. You just felt better being around him. He was a hard worker and lived a good life - just from the comments on this page, you can see the impact he had on people. So sorry to lose him, but understand that Heaven is gaining an angel.

“ Angelo Caso was the Picasso of Clairol hair color, I worked for him and his beautiful wife Lesley Caso, for 25 years, and in watching him day in and day out, the way he made every person that walked into Hair Color Center feel like a king or queen, every person that left had the biggest smile on their face and hugged him and his wife and walked out with their head held high, hair swaying and a strut in their step, that's what the biggest reward about working with him and his wife. The lessons learned, I will never forget. He looked at each hair color client as art, truly, and admired it like a true artist. I loved seeing that. That is just one of many many memories I will hold dear to my heart. All of sarasota ,fl, Will remember how Angelo, and Lesley made sarasota fl, beautiful !

Angelo was a wealth of knowledge and a fantastic person! He was my first mentor when I was A graduate of cosmetology school. He taught me color, correction And how to handle A two process blonde. He loved classical music by Andrea Bocelli and would sing it at work. I am grateful that I got to know him and work with him. 😊🙏 God bless. My condolences to Leslie and the family. Noël Brand

I've been calling on salons and dealing with hairdressers for 35 years. All my clients were pretty much the same. Some nicer than others etc. BUT Angelo was not in that category. Like comparing apples to oranges. You just can't. Angelo was what every hairdresser only dreamed of achieving. There's talent, then there's greatness. Angelo achieved more success than just about anyone. What a mission he had! Angelo made people gorgeous! NO ONE on this planet knew hair color like Angelo and believe me I would know having made a living selling it for 35 years! . He was and should be mentioned in the same breath as Vidal Sassoon and Paul Mitchell. Im not sure people in his chair knew of his credentials, but I know one thing, they didn't hear about them from Angelo. Angelo had so many plaques for all of his achievements, awards etc you couldn't even see the wall. I suspect there were more in the drawers. It's hard to describe Angelo. He just had a way about him that you were drawn to. Anyone who knows him knows what I mean. Not to mention those eyes! Sexy Italians what can you say. The guy was a lady killer. Lesley was the perfect match for him. What a couple. I will MISS seeing him. What a void there will be in there. My heart breaks for you Lesley. With love, John Scioscia

I have had the pleasure to work for Angelo and Lesley at Hair Color Center since 2008. Angelo was my go to for color questions & guidance. I learned so much from him. We are like family at the Salon. He will be greatly missed by everyone. His personality and smile lifted everyone. My condolences to Lesley, John and Karon and family. We lost a very special man.

*I am saddened by the news of Angelo's passing...
It was twenty five years ago that I met Lesley and Angelo, at The Hair Color Center.
Throughout the years, I have been a loyal customer, not only because of Angelo's expertise in his field, but because of the warmth and friendly environment that he created in his studio, for all his guests.
Angelo was truly an expert in his profession, but much more than that, he treated each and everyone of his guests with genuine kindness, patience, and individualized personal care... That special gift of validating everyone, is what made Angelo, a very special extraordinary human being.
Angelo excelled at his profession, and all his talents were appreciated and revered by his staff and work place colleagues. He was a kind and caring person who fascinated me with so many individual and interesting lifelong experiences.
As a man who lived his life to the fullest, Angelo has touched so many lives, with his caring heart.
I missed seeing Angelo at his workplace this past year, but will never forget the beautiful moments of his career, that he shared with me over the years.
Angelo fulfilled his life's dream with ultimate success, and his family, friends, and all those who knew him, will miss him dearly.
Lesley, I cannot imagine the grief that you are experiencing!!! I hope and pray that God will give you strength during this difficult time.
May the love that you and Angelo shared be kept alive, in the countless memories that you have created throughout your married life..
My Prayers and Thoughts are with you and your Family!
Love,
Juliana P. Flaherty*
