

Ann Ramond

May 31, 1924 - February 1, 2016

Ann Ramond, 91, of Bradenton, FL, beloved wife of the late Edward Ramond, passed away peacefully at Tidewell Hospice in Bradenton on Monday, February 1, 2016. Born on May 31, 1924, in Minersville, PA, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Helen (Grigas) Lutsky. She was also predeceased by her brother Albert Lutsky. She married Ed, the love of her life, and moved with him to Middlebury, CT where they lived and worked on a rural, 120-acre dairy farm. They then moved to Southington, CT where they ran a Texaco service station. While in Connecticut, Ann worked for U.S. Rubber in Middlebury, CT and Citizens' Bank in Southington, CT. A loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Ann will be dearly missed by her son Edward and his wife Marian of Burlington, CT; her granddaughter, Laura Henry and her husband, Michael, and her great-grandson, Michael, of Bristol, CT; a dear niece, Judy Machnicz of Fort Myers, a nephew, Russell Benjamin, and many cherished friends. After retirement to Longboat Key, FL, Ann was a longstanding, faithful parishioner of St. Mary, Star of the Sea Church, and a silver-star member of the Ladies' Guild, serving a term of office as its president. A funeral service will be held Friday, February 12, 2016 at 10 a.m. at St. Mary Star of the Sea, 4280 Gulf of Mexico Drive, Longboat Key. Burial will be private at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions in Ann's memory may be made to Tidewell Hospice, 3355 26th Street W, Bradenton, FL 34206 or St. Mary Star of the Sea.
