

Ann T. Ryan

November 20, 1927 - January 21, 2026

Ann T. Ryan of Venice, Florida passed away peacefully on January 21, 2026, at the age of 98. Ann was born on November 20, 1927, to her parents Brigid and James, who immigrated from Ireland at the turn of the 20th century.

She was the youngest of 4 siblings who were born in the Chelsea section of Manhattan in NYC. She was raised in the traditional Irish Catholic fashion and her faith continued to be a central cornerstone throughout her life. This could be evidenced, in part, by her continuous contributions of both volunteered time and financial donations to the poor and those in need.

Ann remained single throughout her life but took great pride in being involved in the lives of all of her nieces and nephews.

She worked her way up the corporate ladder ultimately assuming the position of Custom Service Manager of a large corporation in midtown Manhattan. She loved the city and took delight in the theater and other cultural events.

In her middle-aged years Ann pursued a Bachelor of Art degree at Fordham University in the Bronx. She took every opportunity to travel the globe and cruise the Caribbean.

She was an avid reader, a wicked card player and enjoyed painting and watercolors.

She is survived by ten nieces and nephews and 18 grand-nieces and nephews.

Dear Miss Ann, I am going to miss you so much. You told the best stories, had such a great sense of humor, and gave such sage advice. Was Pinky there to meet you at Heaven's Gate? Table 2 - we had some wonderful breakfast, lunch, and dinner chats. I can remember the first time I heard your "loud" voice. After hearing that tone I never wanted to say anything that upset you! You enhanced my life and I will never forget you. Rest in Peace, my friend. I love you. ~Linda “ Ann was our dear sweet neighbor and friend. She loved cats and would come visit and read to our cats when we would be on vacation. For a while we took a watercolor class and practiced our new learned skills together. She was witty, sharp as a tack, and a good listener. While we know she is in heaven at peace with the lord, we will still miss her dearly.
