“ My dear Ann B. I am grateful you are home in heaven with sweet Charles. I guess now that you are there, you can see all of the crazy stuff Gillian and I did as kids. Hope you are laughing. I remember every morning driving you to work in your blue car, you were always so professional, and we were quiet and sweet in the back seat. After dropping you off, of course the stereo went up, the windows down, and our crazy teen-age selves emerged. I probably never thanked you for trusting us and letting us have your car every day. You were like another mother to me. Always there watching out for us - keeping us in line. Did you yell across both yards like my mom did?? Oh wait, only when Gillian was in big trouble I think. I will never forget growing up with you on River Road. Sweet times. Precious memories. Thank you for that. Thank you for your beautiful daughter, who has been my best friend throughout my whole life. To the Titus and Ardini family, I extend my heartfelt sympathy, love and support. Jeffrey and Aunt Margo - my now too distant family, I love you both. I wish I could be there with you. I am certainly there in spirit.
Love and more love,
Christie
