

Anne R. Sandrib

August 8, 2016

Anne R. Sandrib from Osprey, FL, formerly of Demarest, New Jersey passed peacefully last Monday morning, August 8th.

Born in Farsund, Norway in March of 1938, she emigrated to the United States in 1946 at the end of World War II with her family and settled in Brooklyn, New York where she remained until she began a family of her own and moved to New Jersey in 1962. After spending numerous winters in Florida, she and her husband retired to Osprey in 2005.

Anne is survived by her beloved husband of 56 years, Norman, her three loving children, Robert (Kristina), Christine and Elise and two grandsons, Thomas and Jack along with several adored nieces and nephews.

She will be laid to rest at St. Armand Key Lutheran Church.

Donations may be made in her name to Tidewell Hospice.
