

Anne Kerby Miller Stegall

May 22, 1951 - January 31, 2026

It is with unfathomable sadness, that my beloved wife of 54 years. Anne Kerby Miller Stegall passed away suddenly on Saturday 31st of January at age 74.

Anne was born in Memphis, Tennessee on May 22, 1951, to John Smith Miller, Jr., and Albia Wallis Cooper. Anne resided most of her life in New Orleans, Louisiana and moved to her chosen city of Sarasota, Florida in 2014.

Anne went to Messick High School in Memphis, Tennessee. Anne attended the University of Mississippi from 1969-1971 and later earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree in English from the University of New Orleans in 1979, Deans List. Anne began her professional career with the Department of Energy's Strategic Petroleum Reserve Sites in Louisiana and Texas. Later becoming a contract administrator for Boeing Petroleum Service prime operator for the Strategic Petroleum Reserve from 1982-1993. Anne won numerous outstanding achievement awards and letters of commendation during her distinguished career.

Anne was extremely gifted and read obsessively. She was politically astute; extensively world traveled; and relished the symphony. Anne loved nature and was particularly fond of all plants and flowers. She was an active member of Chateau Estates Garden Club where she served on numerous committees that supported the community of Kenner. Upon moving to Sarasota, she became an active member of the Sarasota Garden Club. Anne loved the beach and swimming in the Gulf which always brought out her intoxicating smile. Anne was a kind and loving soul with a patience and humorous outlook on life. Anne added to the world and will be dearly missed by all those who knew and loved her.

Anne was predeceased by her sister Albia Cooper Miller and was survived by her niece, Ahjile Vikara Miller and family. Steven R. Stegall, beloved husband.

A memorial service will be held for Anne on Monday, March 16th at 11:00am in the chapel of The First United Methodist Church of Sarasota, Sarasota, Florida.

In lieu of flowers, Anne would want donations to be made to a charity of your choice in her honor.
