VISITATION: Toale Brothers N. Orange Ave Friday April 17, 2020 5 to 7pm

PLEASE SEND FLOWERS: Retailing flowers has always been the final and most significant tribute one can pay a deceased acquaintance . Over 100 years, flowers reflect feeling, words and special thought. The vision of a service without flowers would be extremely “empty”. Florists need your support especially during these times. Our family request is to PLEASE call your local florist and send flowers to ANYONE special to you today in honor of my father. My father always supported recognition with Flowers. Thank you in advance.

“ Art, I feel blessed to have learned so much about your dad and the guidance he gave you, when you were preparing for your "How I Did It" presentation for SAF's convention a few years ago. We had several conversations (and lots of laughs) leading up to your presentation, which focused on your early years as a young entrepreneur (or "hustler" as I think you put it!), and it was clear your dad was the "wind beneath your wings." I feel blessed to have learned so much about him from you -- and that you were able to share that story with so many floral industry members.
