“ So sorry to hear of Barb's passing. She was my mother's best friend of a lifetime and sorority sister at the U of I during the late 1940's. I have fond memories of my formative years spending time with the Corbetts in their beautiful home on Colfax. Good food, conversation, helpful guidance from Barb during my challenging adolescence. The many years and miles have not diminished Barb's memory . Losing the final parent is formidable and I send my best wishes to Janey, Emily and Sarah.
