“ I had the childhood privilege of knowing both Tom and Barbara Draper through their daughter, Paula Ruth, whom I spent my school years with, going downtown to Maas Brothers and to the movies. I am sorry to hear of Barbaras passing. I loved going to Drapers Western store; the Drapers were kind to me. I'd love to hear from Paula- if you can get in touch with me Paula I'll leave my email address please except my deepest condolences .

“ I will miss this extraordinary lady so much. In the five years I was her neighbor, we had many many pleasant walks around the neighborhood and plenty of breakfasts at her favorite cafe. She was as much fun as anyone half her age and we covered a lot in our talks. A favorite memory: Barbara was talking about her husband and she got a sweet look on her face and said, "Tom and I had too much fun!" My thoughts are with the family and I know that her many friends too will miss Barbara. Lisa Colb
