“ I am so very sorry for your loss. May you find peace with each butterfly that passes by, knowing that your baby lives on in the hearts of all he touched. I know your mom reached out and held him in her arms and welcomed him into Heaven. She'll take good care of him until you meet again. Rest easy, Sweet Baby Bentley.

“ *Sweet Baby Bently
You left this earth far to soon .
You brought great love, peace and joy to so many and they will keep you in their hearts for ever.
Your Mother and father, and those that held you and watched you learn to smile, will feel a deep hurt, and emptiness, for a long time.
Your memories will help them during this time.
My prayer is that they will find strength and peace.
Knowing how very much they loved you.
The next time they see a floating feather , it will be your spirit.....*
