

Bernard Salomon

December 20, 1932 - January 19, 2017

Bernard Salomon born 12/20/1932 died 1/19/2017 Memorial Service will be held at Temple Emanu-el on Sunday Feb. 12, 2017 at 1 pm.

Survived by wife Mona, daughters Susan Salomon, Shari Rosenblum, son in law Alan Rosenblum grandsons Brandon and Zachary Rosenblum. Bernard was retired from Prudential Securities. He belonged to PARC's in Brooklyn and Sarasota RC Squadron. As a teen he started building model airplanes and would fly them whenever he could. He loved showing and helping children and adults how to fly. Bernard also enjoyed music. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El, Jewish War Veterans Post 172 and served as vice commander for several years. Bernard knew the value of giving back to his community.

Upon retiring he volunteered as a Learning Leader in his grandson's school. In Sarasota he volunteered for Doctors Hospital, American Cancer Society and its Committee for Making Strides for Breast Cancer for 10 years. When asked to help he always volunteered if he was able.

Memorial Donations may be made to the American Cancer Society for Making Strides or to Temple Emanu-El.