Beverly Tahon Fierstos, age 81, of North Port, Florida, passed away at Venice Regional Bayfront Hospital. She was born at Fort Monroe, Hampton Virginia to Frank and Jessie Tahon. At her side, until the end, was her husband John Robert Fierstos; Yvette Tille and husband James, and their daughter Christine; Benny and Pam Gomez, and their son Benny; and Elizabeth Meadows. She is survived by 8 grandchildren and four great grandchildren, and by her older sister Shirley Wallahan. Beverly was the third daughter of four girls. Having been raised an Air Force Brat, she was proud to have been in nearly every state. Beverly had an infectious personality, which made everybody laugh. She loved her kids and her offspring with all her heart. She loved animals - especially dogs. She had a dog in her life since the age of four. Coco, a female Shih Tzu and her fourth child, was her pride and joy until her passing. She loved to cook, and kept a clean house. She loved to redesign her home interior, and would constantly do so, and quite well I might add. She loved being a homemaker, and she loved gardening. She loved to sing and dance. She will truly be missed by all who loved her. Viewing will be Tuesday, September 4th, from 6 to 8 p.m at Toale Brothers Funeral Home at 40 North Orange Avenue.
