“ Bev & I knew each other through Montreal Memories on Facebook. We soon learned we had much in common, such as graduating from McGill University. Sweet, caring, endearing Bev seemed as beautiful inside as the radiant pictures she would post. When my beloved mother died Jan. 19, Bev apologized for not sending her immediate condolences. She hadn't found out immediately, but had sent a heartfelt expression of sympathy...& now I offer the same, to Bev's grieving family & her oceans of friends. As I said about my own precious mother, we have lost an angel on Earth- but Heaven has gained a new angel.

“ To Bev's family,
I am so sad to hear this news. We have been in touch for many years through Facebook. She was a friend from high school. She shared many parts of her life with me throughout the years. She was so proud of her family. I loved it when she would call her friends DEAR this or that.... it always made me smile! We were so blessed to have her as a friend. She will be missed! My deepest condolences. May you be spared further sorrow by remembering her gentle soul. I am so very sorry.

“ Dear Rob, Amber and Brandon, and Mrs Israel,
Bev was a dear friend. We knew each other since we were 13, first met at Westhill, we were in the band together (she was First clarinetist), then we worked together in Montreal at the Royal Victoria Hospital, and she helped me figure out how best to help my grandmother, and again we met at a Judy and David concert in Toronto with our then, young children.
Over the past few years, Bev and I became close again, as I'd be sure to visit at least once a year, if not more, while I was down in Florida visiting my Dad, who winters in Bradenton.
I can not imagine the grief and sadness you feel now, I'm in shock but my focus is on you, her dear family. Bev was one of a kind. A beautiful woman inside and out. She was so kind and giving. And so very bright and most of all wise. Wise as can be, I always said to her she should hang shingles outside her home as she was so understanding and caring, clever and positive, despite the many illnesses she recently suffered was always hopeful of full remission that would allow her to lead an easier day to day life.
I know beyond everything in her life, that her family was first and foremost her primary concern, love, and joys were Rob, her parents, and Amber and Brandon. Bev was the proudest mom, as she should be. The stories she shared clearly displayed what exceptionally outstanding and gifted adults Amber and Brandon have become. Both Bev and Rob were incredible parents.
Bev cared for everyone. She will be sorely missed. But her spirit and beautiful love of life and the simple pleasures of life she so enjoyed will live on - she shared her beautiful kindness and soul, always, and I will miss her dearly.
My heart and prayers are with you her family. Please accept my deepest condolences at this time. I'm truly sorry I am not with you at this time.

“ Dear Rob, Amber, Brandon and family,
Bev was a wonderful, loving and caring person.
She had an effervescence about her...always a kind word and a positive energy. She was a very good friend.
When Bev and I saw each other the first time after so many years , I admired a silver bracelet she was wearing. Three days later, I received a package. She had bought me the same bracelet I had admired...she said she wanted me to have the pleasure of having one too. I will never forget the pleasure she had in giving me this gift.
May you all find comfort in your memories of sweet Bev. Know that she prized her family above all else and was so very proud of her accomplished children.
My heartfelt condolences.

“ I hadn't seen Bev since McGill days, but after reconnecting several years ago, we have kept in touch, spending hours reminiscing about our high school days. I was hoping to get together but circumstances always got in the way. It was with joy that I met her lovely, talented daughter Amber and it was heartwarming to see similarities. Bev did such a fine job with her children. I will miss Bev terribly but know that she will always be with me in my heart.
My deepest condolences to Bev's family and all her friends. My thoughts, prayers and love are with you.
