

Beverly May Saxonberg

December 2, 1934 - October 29, 2023

Beverly May Saxonberg, passed away at the age of 88 on October 29, 2023 in her home surrounded by family and friends. Beverly was born in Chicago, Illinois on December 2, 1934 to Jack and Lessie Atlas.

Beverly spent the last forty years of her life with her late husband, Alvin Saxonberg, in Sarasota, Florida enjoying all that life had to offer her through fishing, boating, shopping, attending art fairs, and hosting events for family and friends. She also enjoyed traveling with her husband and grandchildren and attending operas, ballets, and charity events. We will remember Beverly for her loving nature, selflessness, and occasional, endearing stubbornness.

Beverly is survived by her sister Rosie, two of her children: Jay and Joy, her grandchildren: Jack, Jake, Megan, Tamir, and Brittney, her great grandchild Willow, and a host of other relatives and friends who were fortunate enough to have known her. She was preceded in death by her husband, Al and daughter, Bonnie.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to the Jewish Agency for Israel at <http://www.jewishagency.org>