

Bruce Robert Domenella

September 6, 1949 - March 3, 2016

Bruce Robert Domenella, 66, died 3/3/16, at his home with his loving family by his side. Bruce was born on 9/6/49, in Evanston, IL. Beloved husband of Debbera Domenella, father of one son and two daughters, Anthony Domenella (Emily), Lawrence, KS, Daughter(s), Leslie Waid (Christopher), Bradenton, FL, Stefanie Brown (Kevin) Son of the late Elio & Verna Domenella. Brother of the late Mark Domenella and Lina Hamilton. He is also survived by seven grandchildren (Madeline, Logan, Hannah, Vincent, Tyler, Eva, and Whitney).

Bruce was a retired software engineer, amateur HAM Radio operator, and a C.E.R.T Volunteer. He was a devoted husband, loving father, and affectionate Nonno. A creative individual and an excellent storyteller, serious political enthusiast, practical jokester, and could fix anything with his hands with a little ingenuity. He had a great love and ear for music; enjoyed sharing his knowledge with others, and it is in his passing that knowledge on, that Bruce will continue to challenge and inspire us. He will forever be in the hearts of those who had the pleasure to know and love him.

Memorial services will be held at Lakewood Ranch Baptist Church 5600 Deer Dr., Sarasota, FL 34240 on Thursday, March 10th at 1pm.

In lieu of flowers, please make a charitable donation to the leukemia foundation at www.leukemia.org.au
