

Dr. Bruce Trevens, O.D.

December 2, 2021

Bruce Trevens, 91, of Bradenton Florida died peacefully at home on Dec 2, 2021. He was a resident at Stone River Retirement Community.

Bruce was preceded in death by his wife, Helene “Honey” Trevens and is survived by his daughters; Janine “Nina” Trevens and Melissa DiGenova (spouse, Lynn) and Honey's two children who he thought of as his own, Joseph Hershon (spouse Rina Miller) and Freddy Woolard (spouse John) and his grandchildren: Ariel, David and Ceanna; as well as his brother Newton (spouse Willa), sister Loretta, and beloved nieces and nephews.

Born in Boston, Massachusetts, he was a veteran of the Korean War and an Optometrist (New England College of Optometry) in Springfield, MA for many years. He loved to play golf and poker, watch baseball and football and dance with the ladies. But most of all he loved his desserts and his weekly Zoom calls with Nina and Melissa and phone calls with his grandson David.

Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations in his name to a charity that he often contributed to: TADA! Youth Theater, www.tadatheater.com
