“ To Carol's family, I send my condolences and pray you find peace in your memories. I worked with Carol at Northern Trust and always found her to be so fun and funny, caring and a hard worker. She could be direct but always coming from a good place. The picture of her that comes into my mind is where she is laughing and giving a co-worker a "hard" time - it makes me smile. I am so sorry for your loss.

“Sunday’s with Carol. That’s what I will cherish the most. Most Sundays, if we were both free, Carol would go to the early mass and then she would meet me at Panera for breakfast. She was such a great listener and always gave you her honest opinion. Even if it wasn’t what you wanted to hear. No b.s. with Carol, ever. She was a great support system for me while Randy was fighting his cancer all those years. When he died, she was really here for me. When Sonny died I told her that I was here for her, whatever she needed. She never asked for anything. That just wasn’t her way. For someone who had suffered so much loss in her own life she stayed so positive and forward thinking. No negativity no matter what was happening. Keep moving forward. Having Sonny and Carol in my life was a surprise for me because she was Randy’s first wife’s sister. Who would have thought. They became my family. So many wonderful memories. Riding out Hurricane Irma in our house with Cathy, Sonny and Carol. Eventually Richie showed up too. We made it fun. I can’t think of anyone I’ve laughed with more than Carol. I don’t think it was always intentional but she was hysterical. I can hear her laughing now. I hope I can hear it forever. ❤️

“ Oh Mom, I will miss you every single minute of every single day until I see you again. You are my very best friend and I am not sure how to navigate this life without you. I know in my heart you are resting easy and catching up with Grandma, Auntie Judy and Auntie Priscilla. I love you so very much and you will always be remembered as the one who welcomed everyone with open arms just how I picture Heaven welcomed you ❤️.
