

Carol Lamberti Scarbrough

January 5, 2022

Carol Lamberti Scarbrough passed away peacefully on January 5, 2022, after an unexpected illness. She was born to Dr. William F. and Amelia Lamberti and raised in Scranton Pennsylvania. A graduate of Penn State University where she met and married her first husband Atty. W. Boyd Hughes and had three loving children.

Carol was an amazing, unique, and loving woman with many talents from engineering, interior design, certified arc welder, consummate gourmet chef and host. She was most proud of her accomplishment of being a 100-ton certified crane operator, owning a crane business and working on many government projects from Pennsylvania to California. Wherever she went, she made a house a home and filled it with love. She was a friend to all who knew her, a peacemaker to our hearts, a rock that anchored the family from Florida to Massachusetts to England.

After relocating to Longboat Key in 1995, Carol resumed her childhood passion of golf and was a member of the Longboat Key Club Women's Golf Association, and the Girls Friday Group where she enjoyed her golf and many dear friendships. This is where she met and married William R. Scarbrough having a ceremony on Cape Cod and Longboat Key so all her many friends and family could share in their happiness. She enjoyed many years with Bill as a snowbird on Cape Cod and Florida.

Bill shared Carol's love of travel and they spent wonderful years traveling the globe from Safari in South Africa to Operas in Venice and Vienna, riding the Orient Express, with vast tours of Russia and Europe. One of her greatest joys was visiting her son David, his wife Tanya and grandson Tyler in London. Carol spent her happiest days on the Harbourside Blue Course and walking her beach route as a 16-year Turtle Patrol watchman for Mote Marine.

Carol leaves behind three children, her devoted daughter Carolyn Hughes and her husband Ian

Laughton (Sarasota), her beloved son David B. Hughes, wife Tanya, and her heart, her grandson Tyler (Sarasota and CT) and Dr. William B Hughes (Pennsylvania), her sister Ann Boyer, niece and nephew Dee Lamberti, Doug Boyer, and wife Beth Ann, all of Sarasota, stepchildren Debbie Warga and Ross Scarbrough, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and many dear dear friends who she loved deeply.

In loving memory by her son-in-law, Ian Laughton...

"Things will change from this day on, here with us is where you belonged. When we were down you seemed to make us smile, that place in our hearts will always stay, such good memories will never fade away.

The tears we shed we shed for you, now is the time to make your dreams come true.

You gave us confidence, you gave us pride, even though you're gone we will be by your side.

For all those years in which we share, to say goodbye we are not prepared.

We cannot believe today was the day, you made us stronger and that we believe.

But now it's time to let you leave.”
