

Carolyn Brunson Boudreaux

March 16, 2026

Carolyn Brunson Boudreaux peacefully slipped away, surrounded by her family, to a place in heaven on March 16, 2026. Carolyn touched the lives of so many over an amazing lifetime. From the most humble beginnings, as the only college graduate in her immediate family, to the steps of Capitol Hill where she worked for Senator Strom Thurmond. She married Edward J. Boudreaux, Jr., and raised four children of whom she was incredibly proud. Carolyn celebrated her five grandchildren with love and graciousness. Carolyn's humility, strength, intelligence, charm, determination, creativity and class knew no bounds. She had a joy for life, people and a desire to do "good" with service to everyone. Carolyn's smile was contagious and her love for family never ending. Her dedication to the arts and Venice Theatre was unsurpassed.

Carolyn, is survived by her husband of 65 years, Edward Boudreaux, Jr. In addition, she is survived by her daughter: Susan Boudreaux of Venice, Florida: her daughter Anne Boudreaux of Vernon Hills, IL: son Bryan and his wife Melissa of Bradenton, FL: daughter Nancy Ng and her husband Rene of Bradenton, FL: and grandchildren, Emily and Bryan Petty, Mallory and Jillian Boudreaux and Ashely Ng. Carolyn is also survived by her sister, Annette Sutcliffe of Norway, SC.

A celebration of life will be held on May 24, 2026, from 4pm to 6pm at Village on the Isle, Venice, FL 34285.

In lieu of flowers, please send contributions in Carolyn's memory to Venice Theatre at 140 Tampa Avenue West, Venice, FL 34285 or www.venicetheatre.org/dontae
