

Carolyn Edith Thompson

October 15, 1934 - December 28, 2023

On December 28, 2023, heaven gained a new angel with the passing of Carolyn Edith Thompson.

Carolyn was born on October 15, 1934, in New York City, NY to the late Samuel J. Munger and Ella T. Munger. She was raised in Garden City, NY, spending summers at the family home in Amagansett, NY. Upon graduating from high school in 1948, she attended Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, Ohio, where she was a member of the Chi Omega Sorority and captain of the field hockey team. After marrying Frederick J. Eisler Jr. in 1958 she moved to New Jersey and subsequently Illinois, Minnesota, and Wisconsin.

In 1977, Carolyn moved to Sarasota, FL to be closer to her mother and grandmother who lived in Vero Beach, FL. She went to work for Smith Specialty Wholesale Foods where she met her soul mate, Joseph W. Thompson. They married on Halloween in 1980. Together they traveled to Europe and Great Britain and enjoyed playing a round or two of golf, until Joe's death in October 1992.

Carolyn retired from Bank of America in 1995 and began volunteering at Sarasota Memorial Hospital in the emergency room and cath-lab for 23 years. She traveled again to Europe and Great Britain, as well as Mexico, Puerto Rico, Costa Rica, Alaska, and all over the United States, making new friends everywhere she went. She was an avid reader, enjoyed knitting and was an active member of the local chapter of her sorority.

Carolyn leaves behind her two children who loved her dearly, Frederick J. Eisler III, of Moyock, NC and Caroline "Carrie" E. Dan, and her son-in-law Brian Heath of Bradenton, FL.

A Celebration of Life is scheduled for 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 17, 2024, at St. Boniface Episcopal Church located on Siesta Key at 5615 Midnight Pass Rd., Sarasota, FL 34242.
