“ Case, you will be missed more than you would have realized. Case was my shipmate through much of my 5 years in the navy. He was my roommate in Hawaii and on deployment as well as copilot on many of our stupid crazy adventures. He was like a brother to me and after the navy became my brother in law after we both married the Rowan sisters. Lots of memories over the years. His mother Laurel & George graciously opened their house (longer than anyone expected) to me and my new wife when we first came to Florida on an extended honeymoon and job hunting trip. Rest easy Case now that you are back with Lisa. Miss ya buddy.

“ I first met Case while stationed in Hawaii in the early 80's, he was in Patrol squadron 22 I was in Patrol squadron 6. Happy times, I can remember a day Case was sitting in his driveway, white jeans, white t-shirt, no shoes, sitting in the front seat of his 68 charger, we just spent the afternoon having a few beers solving all of the worlds problems! Later in the year I was on the ready alert, my sisters were flying from Nebraska for a visit, that afternoon I got launched to midway island, I called case and said please pick up my sisters as I have to go, Case agreed and he was quite the tour guide, a year or so later he married my sister Lisa, had two beautiful children and the rest is history. Fair winds and following seas, Rest In Peace shipmate, we have the watch!!
