

Charles H. Burke

December 29, 2017

Charles H. Burke passed peacefully in his sleep at Sunnyside Village Health Care Center in Sarasota, Florida, at the age of 92.

Charles was a WWII and Korean Conflict veteran and survivor of the Normandy Invasion. He reached the rank of Senior Chief Hospital Corpsman and was USNMC retired. He was a member of the VFW and the Fleet Reserve Association. Charles was a long time member of the Shriners and served as Commodore of The Mariners.

He is survived by his wife and love of his life, Mary Rose; and his only child, Janelle Ann Burke-Maris and her husband, John Clark Maris of Sykesville, MD. He is also survived by his devoted brother Charles H. Winter and his wife Mary Ann from New York City, NY.

Charles remained friends with his former wife, Marion P Tschinkel Burke of Sykesville, MD, until she predeceased him in 2004.

Family and friends are invited to pay their respects at a short visitation from 9:30 to 10:00AM at The Church of The Nativity Episcopal Church, 5900 Lockwood Ridge Road. A memorial service will follow.

Internment will immediately follow at Palms-Robarts Funeral Home and Memorial Garden.

A reception will be held in the Palms-Robarts chapel.

All are welcome.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ Sincerest sympathies from a distant Bascomb cousin.

Judy Serkes - January 20, 2018 at 12:00 AM

CE

“ RIP Uncle Charlie. You were a joy to have in our family. I know the happiness you shared with Aunt Mary lovingly referred to as "the Boss". My sincere sympathy to the family.

Carol Evans - January 05, 2018 at 12:00 AM

JF

“ My condolences to my dearest godmother and Step-uncle. He was always a blessing to be around! May eternal rest be granted onto him o lord.....

john fenyar - January 03, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TH

“ One true American, One true American friend that will never be replaced. Only One Charlie Burke. Thankful that I was his pal.

Tom Hardin - January 02, 2018 at 12:00 AM