“ Nancy and family, so sorry for your loss. Your father had a wonderful sense of humor in a poker-faced kind of way. He was always a joy to be around. I regret making him dance the "father daughter" dance at your wedding. I had now idea he hated that song so much. My guess is because he loved his daughters so much, that it made him emotional, and that's a good thing.

“ Nancy and family,
Wow, such an accomplished Dad, veteran and civic leader. It certainly reflects in you, Nancy. I thank your father for his influence on you. A man to be missed. God makes us perfect and of course wanted him back. Perhaps God though 89 years was enough in service to those here on earth. Blessings to you all.
