

Charlotte L. Weeks

January 3, 1927 - August 16, 2016

Charlotte Lovingood Weeks was born in Citico, TN, the third of six children to James Arthur and Prudie Lovingood. Her family started wintering in Sarasota in the early 1930's and she was a long standing resident of the county.

Charlotte never met a stranger, loved to make people laugh and was always ready to share a joke and a smile. At an early age she exhibited a flair for fashion, was an amazingly talented seamstress and creative designer. In 1965 she decided to focus her talents by opening and operating a successful upscale clothing boutique (Tres Chic) next to Venice Beach, then subsequent locations until she retired in 1990. She was a proud member of Eastern Star, Chap. 300 for 56 yrs.

She was pre-deceased by her parents, her brother Fred T. Lovingood, Adairsville, GA and Joe Z. Lovingood, Sarasota, FL. She is survived by three brothers; James A. (Ginny), Scottsboro, AL, Clyde, Dallas, TX and Charles (Patricia), Crossville, TN, her devoted sister-in-law Joan Lovingood, Sarasota, FL, several nieces and nephews, her beloved cat Patches and daughter Shelecia R. Weeks, Osprey, FL.

There will be no services. Toale Brothers Funeral Homes Ewing Chapel of Venice is in charge of arrangements.

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider a donation to the Wildlife Center of Venice or the Humane Society of Sarasota County.