“ My grandma, the strongest, most independent sharpest 95 year old Irish women ever. You will be greatly missed by all of us, we will miss your stories, your love of port, shots of Celtic crossing, singing bears, JFK, and most of all your love of your home, Ireland. I thank you for being so strong thought the year and beating anything life has thrown at you. You being around and having the chance to be a GG to my kids has meant the world to me and them. You are deeply missed and we love you so much. Scott , Siobhan , Hailey , Emily , Tyler

“ Chrissy will be greatly missed, the last of an era. She was probably the oldest native born in Skerries Co. Dublin, Ireland, to have lived to 95 years. Our family will miss all her stories. Now she is with all her brothers and sisters. We love you. Joseph and Pat

“ I am sorry about the loss of your grandmother. Let your happy memories bring you comfort, and may these words help you to endure the days to come. Jehovah God is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. And he will wipe away the tears from all faces. Psalms 34:18; Isaiah 25:8 NWT Bible. Peace be with you all.
