

Christine Anne Sandrib

September 11, 1964 - February 9, 2017

Christine Sandrib was born in Englewood, New Jersey and enjoyed a wonderful childhood with her big brother Rob, her little sister Elise, and her adoring parents Anne and Norman Sandrib.

She graduated from Hartford University and New York's Fashion Institute. Christine flourished in the fashion industry in New York City while making lifelong friends. She also worked in London for a short time and was able to pursue her tremendous passion for travel.

A few years after her parents moved to sunny Southwest Florida, she followed and became the Director of Membership for The Ritz-Carlton, Sarasota. She always had a wonderful way of connecting with people and her philanthropic spirit kept her active in the community. This led to her next incredible professional opportunity with New York Private Bank & Trust in Sarasota as Managing Director.

Christine is survived by her father Norman, and her sister Elise, both of Sarasota; her brother Robert (Kristina), and nephews Tommy & Jack, of Northport, NY; as well as many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

In lieu of flowers, Christine's wishes were to have donations made to Tidewell Hospice (Philanthropy Dept, 5955 Rand Blvd, Sarasota, FL 34238) or Moffitt

Cancer Center at moffitt.org/donate, or 12902 Magnolia Drive MBC-FUND, Floor #2 Tampa, FL 33612. Please mention Christine so we will know to thank you for your thoughtfulness.

The service will be held Friday, February 17 at 2 p.m. at St. Armand' s Key Lutheran Church.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ My belated condolences to Christine's family and friends. I first found Christine's online Blog which she started in 2013 and after my daughter was diagnosed with Ovarian cancer and I was searching for information.

Thankfully, my daughter is now a two year survivor and doing well.

I wanted to place a link below to Christine's Blog that gave me such insight AND to memorialize it because Christine was kind and compassionate in reaching out and sharing her experience with other.

With this link you will find Christine's last Blog post on December 24, 2014. Its beautiful and memorable. I am happy to know that she lived a few more years.

<https://christinesandrib.wordpress.com/>

Thank you, Christine. I look forward to meeting you one day in Heaven! ~Jill King

---

Jill King - December 10, 2017 at 12:00 AM

JK

My belated condolences to Christine's family and friends. I first found Christine's online Blog which she started in 2013 and after my daughter was diagnosed with Ovarian cancer and I was searching for information.

Thankfully, my daughter is now a two year survivor and doing well.

I wanted to place a link below to Christine's Blog that gave me such insight AND to memorialize it because Christine was kind and compassionate in reaching out and sharing her experience with other.

With this link you will find Christine's last Blog post on December 24, 2014. Its beautiful and memorable. I am happy to know that she lived a few more years.

<https://christinesandrib.wordpress.com/>

*Thank you, Christine. I look forward to meeting you one day in Heaven!
~Jill King*

---

Jill King - December 10, 2017 at 12:00 AM

LB

“ The Sandrib family has lost another angel. Christine was a strong young women who fought a courageous battle with a smile the whole while. What a loss. Condolences to Dad, Norman, sister Elise & the rest of the family. I know she will be sorely missed by all who knew her. Rest in peace, Christine.

---

Linda Bastian - April 02, 2017 at 12:00 AM

BV

“ *I did not know Christine for a very long time but came to love her as if I had known her for years. She called me her "chemo"sabe....not a name I really like but since it came from her I will cherish it forever. A lovely lady certainly gone too soon. She is our angel in heaven, and I am sure the she and her mom will have their work cut out looking over all of us left behind. Missing you much.
Bea Vanek for your Ritz-Carlton Club days.*

---

Bea Vanek - February 21, 2017 at 12:00 AM

SL

“ A beautiful soul gone far too soon. Truly a loss. Thank you for the mounds of laughter Christine. Our lives were surely improved in having known you. Heartfelt condolences to the family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Fly free Christine...until we laugh together again dear lady...you will be deeply missed.

---

Sheree and Lorrie - February 20, 2017 at 12:00 AM

TB

“ Rest in Paradise my friend!!

---

Timothy Bonneau - February 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

EB

“ Enjoyed many times we spent with Christine through my brother John. She was a wonderful woman taken way to early. We don't always understand God's way but trust and believe He was ready for her to return home. Condolences to her family! Ed & Betty Hart Burton

---

Ed & Betty Burton - February 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ Deepest condolences to the Sandrib family.

---

Jim Higgins - February 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

BD

“ I only knew you a little, but that time is etched in my memory. Rest eternal, dear Christine.

---

Beth Dancy - February 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

SH

“ I met Christine in 2012 on a trip to Tuscany for a wine event that ended at Sting's house. She was a huge fan of his like me. We sat at dinner together a couple of times and just hit it off. We stayed in touch since and she asked me in 2014 to help her write a blog regarding her cancer battle. Christine got too sick to continue working on the blog, but she shared some beautiful experiences that illustrate her strength and love. If you want to read, you can visit it here: <http://www.mycancercation.com>.

My sincere condolences to Christine's family, she was a beautiful human being that I am proud to have known. Much love....

Sandy Hibbard

---

Sandy Hibbard - February 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

SH

I met Christine in 2012 on a trip to Tuscany for a wine event that ended at Sting's house. She was a huge fan of his like me. We sat at dinner together a couple of times and just hit it off. We stayed in touch since and she asked me in 2014 to help her write a blog regarding her cancer battle. Christine got too sick to continue working on the blog, but she shared some beautiful experiences that illustrate her strength and love. If you want to read, you can visit it here: <http://www.mycancercation.com>.

My sincere condolences to Christine's family, she was a beautiful human being that I am proud to have known. Much love....

Sandy Hibbard

---

Sandy Hibbard - February 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

BF

“ Even though I did not get to know Christine very well, her family has meant so much to me and I am very sad for them. The good Lord is yet receiving another angel. My prayers are with you during this time.

---

Babs Friedman - February 16, 2017 at 12:00 AM

GS

“ Christine has been a dear friend for the past decade. So happy to have had her wit and and charm in my life. Our deepest condolences to her family. She will be greatly missed. Love. Gardner and Dannie Sherrill

---

Gardner Sherrill - February 16, 2017 at 12:00 AM

MU

“ With sadness in my heart I say goodbye to Christine ... A beautiful and most amazing woman and friend. My husband, Jamie, and I send sincere condolences to the Sandrib family.

Love, Mary Uihlein

---

Mary Uihlein - February 15, 2017 at 12:00 AM