Cindy was born on June 4, 1958 in Ticonderoga, New York. Cindy grew up and attended school in Crown Point, NY where she graduated as Salutatorian in 1976. After graduation Cindy moved to Gloversville, NY and attended college at Fulton Montgomery College graduating in 1978. Cindy met her soon to be husband David while attending Fulton-Montgomery. After Cindy had enough of the cold, her and David packed up and moved to Ft Lauderdale, Florida. They returned north to be married in David's hometown of Bellport, NY in 1981. Eventually they moved to Sarasota, Florida where Cindy spent most of her life and raised her family of two children Elizabeth and Patrick and her three grandchildren James, Daniel, and Cora. Cindy's career at Saint Boniface Episcopal Church started within days of arriving in Sarasota; after applying to their ad, the church fell in love immediately and Cindy stayed for over 30 years, as an integral component of the church. During this time she also went on to work with ACS Technologies as a software trainer and spread her knowledge to churches throughout the country. Cindy was a loving and compassionate spirit whose passion for caring for others was first and foremost. Despite her strong work ethic, family and friends were Cindy's passion. She spent summers and vacations with her loved ones in Florida,

New York and loved the quiet waters of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Though Cindy's health kept faltering for years, few people know the extent to which she struggled. Her joy, faith, and indomitable spirit kept her pushing through the pain. Cindy was predeceased by her parents Edward Wadsworth and Rhoda Wadsworth and a sister Ruth Wadsworth. “ I went to high school with Cindy, leaving before my senior year. She was determined and one of the nicest people I knew. We met up again as adults, about six years ago while she was attending a workshop in Colorado. Immediately we were friends again. I was heart sick when I learned of her health struggles, and now of her death. Her beliefs in God, and faithfulness was an inspiration. She is walking with the angels now. Peace be with her family and the huge number of people that will miss her.

I was a classmate of Cindy also and she was one of the nicest girls in school. A great loss for her family, God received an angel.

Cindy helped many churches by training them to use their software. She also taught users schools and was an instructor at the company's annual conference. Everyone loved her and I will always remember her smile.

I met Cindy when I worked with her husband Dave. Cindy always had a welcoming smile and a zest for life. She also was an excellent photographer and took the pictures at my wedding. My deepest sympathy to the Hannon family during this difficult time. Hugs from the Hatton family.

I remember when we first met Cindy. My Brother Dave was so happy and we could see why. Cindy was so kind, loving, nice and open to everyone. Never judged or made a negative comment about anyone. Always saw the best in everyone. She was so smart and well organized. She was truly an angel sent by God. When Dave and Cindy married, we were (still are) so blessed to have her as part of our family. We love you Cindy!!!

I was part of a church Connect Group with Cindy. I just loved her sweet spirit and was inspired by the peace and joy she exhibited in her journey. Thankful to know I'll see my dear sister in Christ again. ❤️
