

Claire M. Fink

July 6, 1933 - June 10, 2024

Claire M. Fink of Sarasota passed away on June 10, 2024. She was born on June 6, 1933 in Jersey City NJ, grew up in Hasbrouck Heights and graduated from Green Mountain College in 1953 with an Associate Degree in Retailing & Merchandising.

Mrs. Fink worked at Franklin & Simon in New York City as an Assistant Buyer. In 1955 she married Richard A. Fink and moved to Haddonfield, NJ and later to Scotch Plains, NJ. She was a homemaker and raised three children. Mrs. Fink was active in the Junior Woman's Club, serving as President of the Westfield Club from 1967 - 1968, a Boys Scouts Den Mother, a Girl Scouts Leader and an avid bowler, golfer, tennis and bridge player.

Mrs. Fink moved to Sarasota after her husband retired and lived here for nearly 35 years. She continued her interest in golf, tennis and bridge and was a member of St. Boniface Episcopal Church on Siesta Key. She and her husband traveled extensively during their retirement years.

She leaves her devoted husband Richard, who survives her, a daughter Susan Hillel (Pavel) of Osprey, FL, a son Donald (Melanie) of Wolfsboro, NH and a daughter Linda Campbell (Edmund) of Treasure Island, FL and grandsons Daniel and David Michalak of NJ.

Her funeral service will be held at Bay Village of Sarasota, 8400 Vamo Rd, Sarasota, FL 34231, on Monday, June 24, 2024, at 10:00am

Burial following at 2:30pm, at the Sarasota National Cemetery, 9810 State Road 72, Sarasota, FL 34241.
