

Clifford Arthur Rand

July 31, 2022

Clifford Arthur Rand, 86, of Venice, Florida, passed away on Sunday, July 31st.

He was predeceased by his wife of 52 years, Pamela Fay Kearsley Rand, and is survived by their daughters, Kearsley Rand of Alexandria, VA, Valerie Boyle of Springfield, NJ and Felicia Cook of Arlington, VA, grandchildren, Clifford Angus Walsh, Duncan Walsh, Maddie Boyle, Emily Cook, Charlie Boyle, Peter Cook, Mac Boyle, Jonathan (Jordan) Cook and Mike Cook, three great grandchildren, and partner, Evanka Wolfgram.

Cliff was an avid reader and golfer, with 2 holes in one! An ardent traveler, visiting 90 countries, he caught the travel bug early in high school as one of the first students to participate in the AFS study abroad program. With an AB cum laude from Harvard, he went on to earn an MBA from New York University. His early career was the US Military as a Captain in Army Intelligence followed by many years on Wall Street as broker, manager, partner, registered investment advisor and President of the Sales Managers Association of Wall Street.

Cliff lived in Short Hills, NJ for over 30 year and was active in the community as Vice Chairman of The Short Hills Zoning Board, President of the NJ Harvard Club and longtime member of Canoe Brook Country Club. He later moved to Sarasota, FL and was involved with the local Harvard Club and The Oaks Country Club, serving as President of The Oaks Men's Club. Cliff will be remembered for his many jokes, love of dogs and bad Chardonnay, and passion for his family, taking enormous pleasure in his grandchildren's accomplishments.

A private memorial service will be held for immediate family.
