

Clinton Dudley Bohon

September 7, 2022

Clinton Dudley Bohon was born in Benbow, Mo on September 7, 1931 to Harvey D Bohon and Olive Pryor Bohon. He died peacefully August 28, 2022 at Sarasota Memorial Hospital under Hospice care.

Clint enlisted in the Air Force October 1950 and served at Kessler Air Force Base in Mississippi. He was honorably discharged October 1953 and moved to Quincy, IL. February, 1958, he married Beverly Crocker. They remained in Quincy until 1963 when they relocated to Austin, TX for a job transfer. After visiting friends in Sarasota, FL, they fell in love with the area, and decided to leave TX.

They moved to Sarasota in 1964 where they opened the Nic, Nac, Nook on Main Street in Sarasota. Later they established Ringling Jewelry, which they closed in 1995.

Clint and Beverly were active members of Pine Shores Presbyterian Church for many years.

Clint was preceded in death by his parents, a sister and the love of his life, Beverly.
