

Conrad Paul Wiet, MD

December 11, 1933 - January 2, 2023

Conrad Paul Wiet, MD, age 89, passed away peacefully, with his family by his side, on January 2, 2023. Conrad was the second born son of the late Dr. John Wietrzykowski & Othelia Weyna. He was born in Chicago, Illinois on December 11th, 1933. He grew up in Chicago with his brothers John, Mitchell and Richard, and sister Marcia. He was married to his loving wife Ursula for 63 years.

Conrad went to Loyola University Chicago's Stritch School of Medicine. After graduating in 1958, he proudly served in the United States Army as a physician at Ft. Sheridan, Illinois during the Vietnam War from 1967-1969. He was honorably discharged as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Conrad continued to practice medicine in Chicago for over 30 years. After retiring, Conrad and Ursula moved to Sarasota, Florida in 1998, where Conrad volunteered as a doctor at the Senior Friendship Center for 18 years.

Conrad is survived by wife Ursula (nee Krupinski) Wiet, son Dr. Stephen (Rhonda) Wiet, son Dr. Gregory (Susie) Wiet, daughter Carolyn O'Driscoll, daughter Kathryn (Ben) Hilborn, 11 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his brothers John (Mary Frances) Wiet, Mitchell (Fran) Wiet, Marcia (Ron) Slovick, and Dr. Richard (Jamee) Wiet along with many nieces and nephews.

Conrad will always be known for his compassion and service, for his words of wisdom and great sense of humor.

As a parishioner of Saint Martha's Catholic Church, there will be a Funeral Mass at 200 N. Orange Ave., Sarasota, FL on February 6, 2023, at 10 a.m. Please join us in celebrating his life.
