Cynthia Cavallaro Day

June 7, 1965 - September 16, 2020

Daughter of the late Robert Michael Cavallaro and Joyce Arlene Cavallaro (nee Puskas) and survived by sons Cameron Barrett, Arthur Jackson, brothers Robert A. Cavallaro, Michael Cavallaro, Uncle Arthur Sutch, Aunt Careen Sutch and nieces and nephews Maxwell, Alex, Ryan, Kaitlyn, Micaela, Eliza and Graham.

Cindy was a kind soul who had great love for everyone in her life and all humankind. She was an intelligent, athletic, beautiful person whose philanthropic work reached many people from all facets of life. Most importantly she was a wonderful, caring mother whose love for her boys held no bounds.

The memorial service will be private which were Cindy's wishes.

In lieu of flowers please consider making a donation to the Cynthia Cavallaro Day Memorial Fund of the Manatee Community Foundation. <https://www.manateecf.org/donate-today/>

“ My favorite memory of Cindy was related to her doing an uplifting video for the Visible Men’s Academy to the song “Happy”. It made me feel good to do a clip for it and Cindy giggled along with us while we filmed it. I admired Cindy for her drive. Time will heal but we will never forget. Bless her boys.
