“ Though we were far apart, I thought about you often. Our lives were separate, but we were family. You were loved and will be missed. Give dad a hug for me and great grandma and Aunt Joan, too. Love you, Debbie. Glad you are at peace.

“ Debbie's husband Jim is a colleague of mine; although I was only able to interact with her a couple of times, she was kind and caring each time. It was easy to understand what a special person she was and why Jim loved her so very much. The world is a lesser place for the loss of her, but I know she's now in a place where her pain is gone and she will remain forever young and beautiful. Jim and her family will have a very special angel watching over them, until they can all be together again.

“ Debbie was my sister but most of all she was my best friend. Debbie was always there for me for my good times and my hard times. We had so many good times together. Debbie was always someone I could count on. I love you Debbie and I will truly miss you my sister and my friend. Marlene
