

Dewey W. Boswell

June 30, 2018

Dewey W. Boswell of Sarasota, passed away on June 30 2018. Dewey (aka Sonny) was born and raised in Lynchburg, Virginia. After serving in the United States Air Force during the Korean War (stationed in Japan), he went on to earn a degree in business from Lynchburg College. Shortly after graduation, he moved to Sarasota where he met Martha Ruddick (his wife of 55 years) and together they put down roots and started their family. Although Dewey was widely known and respected by members of Sarasota's banking community for his keen mind for all-things finance, he was also a very talented photographer and avid gardener. He is survived by his sister, Doris Crooks, his son, Scott Boswell, his daughter, Carol Landsberg, and his two grandchildren, Ryan Smolchek and Meghan Landsberg. A celebration of Dewey's life will be held on Saturday July 7, 2018 at First Church of Sarasota at 2:00 pm followed by a private burial.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for you and your family, Carol.

Marie Volkhardt Rossnagle - July 06, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DI

“ Dewey was a neighbor of my parents and our children looked forward to playing with Scott when we came from Ohio on holidays. Our deepest sympathy to his family.
Don and Nancy Irvine

Don Irvine - July 06, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Dewey, you will be missed by so many business people that you helped in Sarasota. You were always fair and without you so many people wouldn't have had a growing business and helped others.
Gary W. Johnson Sun Electric and rental properties.

July 05, 2018 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ To anyone planning to attend Dewey's service, please note it will be held at First United Methodist on South Pineapple Avenue.

Carol Boswell-Landsberg - July 05, 2018 at 12:00 AM

AS

“ Dewey was a great neighbor. My mother, Marilyn, and I are so sorry for your loss.

Alan Shaw - July 05, 2018 at 12:00 AM